GLEASON CONSTRUCTION CO.
APPARENT LOW BIDDER
FOR U FOOTBALL-TRACK FACILITY

MISSOULA---

Gleason Construction Co. of Missoula Tuesday submitted the apparent low bid of $186,500 for construction of the University of Montana's new football and track facility.

J.A. Parker, director of the UM Physical Plant, said the University and the facility architect, Hoiland-Zucconi Architects of Great Falls, had reviewed the three bids submitted and sent the Gleason bid to the Board of Examiners in Helena with recommendation for acceptance.

The two other bidders on the project are Merritt Cass and Sons, $186,990 and Pew Construction Co., $198,300. Both are Missoula firms.

Parker said construction of the new facility will begin as soon as the contract is awarded.

The football-track facility will be built adjacent to Campbell Park on the University's south campus, near the intersection of South ~~9th~~ and Higgins Avenue~~5~~.
